I am almost 87 years old and had never used a cleaning service. Needless to say, I wasn't aware of the sparkling difference a professional could make.

My husband passed away in August and, for my first Thanksgiving alone, my nieces and nephews decided to bring the dinner to me. To prepare my apartment for the occasion my niece, Cindy, located Solaz Cleaning Service in Bergenfield, New Jersey for me.

Housekeeping has never been my strong suit and I couldn't believe what wonderful results were obtained from workers who knew what they were doing. It was amazing! And they arrived exactly on time despite the inclement weather.

I'm only sorry my husband is not here to appreciate it.

Gratefully,
